The background of the slide is a composite image of Earth from space. A bright light source, likely the sun, is positioned at the top center, creating a vertical beam of light and a lens flare effect. The Earth's surface is visible below, showing blue oceans and white clouds. A black grid with white lines is overlaid on the entire image, dividing it into a 3x3 pattern. The text 'BEISPIEL 1' is centered horizontally across the middle of the grid.
